

Auxiliary Plans Yule Activities

Women's Auxiliary to the South Bay Pharmaceutical Assn. met in the home of Mrs. C. E. Putnam of Torrance for their November luncheon meeting. Assisting the hostess were Mmes. David Forsyth, Frank Spillman and Lee Solomon.

Mrs. Forsyth, parliamentarian, suggested that the current by-laws be checked and brought up-to-date. A special meeting was held for this purpose, and changes will be read to the group at their December meeting. These changes will become effective in 1960.

The December meeting will be held at The Palms, 1925 W. Carson in Torrance. The Christmas theme will prevail in table decorations, and hostesses for the day will be Mmes. Douglas Ingle and Demarest.

At this time, Mrs. Charles Bogolea will present each past president with a personally inscribed gavel in appreciation of their term of office. Mrs. Fred Reese, charter president, will receive the original gavel which has been used each year, followed by Mmes. Jack Dean and Peter Aspen. Mrs. Demarest will also receive her gavel for the current year, and in the future, each new president will receive a gavel at her formal installation.

The auxiliary will be honored in having Mrs. Fred Carpenter of the California Pharmacy Journal, Ladies Activities, as their guest at this Christmas meeting.

In lieu of a Christmas gift exchange, a $30.00 check will be sent to the South Bay Auxiliary to Children's Hospital, given by members attending. This is an annual gift for the children.

Local B&PW Participates At Meeting

Torrance Business and Professional Women's club was represented at the district meeting held at the Lafayette Hotel in Long Beach by Mrs. Jack Hahn, president, Lucille Lewellen, Ruth Schrum, Muriel Whiting and Pearl Good.

The Torrance group had the honor of decorating for the banquet. The theme of the meeting was "Leadership, A Woman's Role."

Dorothy Kehr of a Torrance flower shop and a member of the local club, designed a simulated world with a woman inside the globe holding streamers to flags surrounding the world designating job classifications the women hold in each country. At the base were large white China chrysanthemums.

Ruth Shrum and Maxine Hahn made parchment scrolls for each table with the name and background of famous women who have pioneered the working field of women.

Mrs. Hahn, president of the local club, was hostess to Elizabeth Chapman, state president. The Torrance club entertained at a cocktail party for state officers.

Speaker for the banquet was Dr. John DeWater from UCLA whose topic was "Wake Up to Tomorrow." He pointed out the influence women could have in the world today, reminding them that in the United States today, women have the vote by 51 per cent.

To Nevada

Mr. and Mrs. Fay Parks have gone to Tonopah, Nev., to attend the bedside of Mrs. Parks' brother-in-law, Hayes Burdick, who is seriously ill.
